

Makua Lani Christian School Expected Schoolwide Learning Results

Students should leave Makua Lani as

Committed Christians

- Who have accepted Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior.
- Who have a well-developed Christian Worldview.
- Who have gained a deeper knowledge of and respect for God's word.
- Who demonstrate the reality of their faith by doing good works, either in their school, church, or community.
- Who are people of character.

Critical Thinkers

- Able to identify and analyze arguments or underlying assumptions.
- Able to analyze, evaluate and synthesize information through independent and/or cooperative effort in order to reach resolution.
- Able to transfer learned skills to a new setting.

Effective Communicators

- Able to assimilate information and communicate it clearly through the use of speaking, writing, and technology.
- Able to read and listen critically and respond appropriately to oral and written communication.
- Able to understand the need and value of working together and maturely resolving interpersonal conflicts.

Self-Directed Learners

- Who have a vision for their future and have set appropriate goals to realize that vision.
- Who know which learning strategies work best for them and how to apply these strategies to learn new concepts and skills.
- Who understand the value of being a life-long learner.